

That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved our time at home. Indiana's telephone privacy law has given us back our privacy and protected us from 10 to 15 annoying sales calls per week. Please do not jeopardize this great law in Indiana and allow us to govern ourselves the way the founding fathers of this great nation intended.